1. [] Comment. The shipments are confirmed [] It is assumed that units of the 9th Mecc Div transferred to Jueterbog for exercises. In late May and June, units of the division including elements with tanks were continually rotated between Cottbus and Jueterbog. 25X1
2. [] Comment. [] this shipment returned from Wustrow with AAA sighting equipment. In addition to this shipment, two trains with AAA units returned from Wustrow to Wuensdorf [] on 6 July. An additional three shipments including 12 x 85-mm AA guns went from Sperenberg to Wustrow on 11 July. 25X1
3. [] Comment. These were units of the 2d Light Arty Brig which had transferred to Altengrabow on 27 June. 25X1
4. [] Comment. [] this shipment with AAA units with 8 x 85-mm AA guns arrived in Frankfurt/Oder. 25X1
5. [] Comment. Units of the 71st Light Arty Brig, which had transferred to Altengrabow on 26 June, were involved. 25X1
6. [] Comment. The designation "load exceeding standard measurements" possibly indicates that the shipment carried AAA sighting equipment. 25X1
7. [] Comment. Between 6 and 9 July, motor vehicles, predominantly buses and sedans, and a unit with 3 x 85-mm AA guns were entrained in Eberswalde. [] two trains from Eberswalde to Frankfurt/Oder. It is possible that headquarters units of the Fourth Gds Mecc Army were transferred to Lieberose. 25X1
8. [] Comment. These two trains with medium AAA units were seen passing through Jueterbog by another source. 25X1
9. [] Comment. These were probably KVP shipments to the training area east of Kietz. 25X1
